St Antonius Girls' College

2026-2027 Implementation Plan on the Use of One-off Grant for Promotion of Self-directed Language Learning (English Language)

Consultation methods: panel meetings and instant messaging

| Targets | Implementation Strategies | Success Criteria | Methods of evaluation | Time Scale | Responsible persons | Resources Required |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1.To strengthen students' self-directed language learning | • Establishing an online English learning platform that integrates AI-powered adaptive learning, multi-skill development, automated assessment tools, gamified challenges and real-time performance analytics. | • At least 50% of students complete more than the minimum requirement set by English teachers.• Around 70% of students agree that the online English learning platform help them learn English more effectively. | • Teachers' observation• Students' feedback | • Sep-June | • English teachers | • $50,000 |
| | • Running News Literacy Programme that involves subsidizing students' subscription to English newspapers and organizing competitions and activities related to the news articles. | • At least 70% of students agree that they read more English newspapers.• At least 70% of students agree that reading English newspapers can enhance their English vocabulary and knowledge of the world. | • Teachers' observation• Students' feedback | • Sep-• June | • English teachers | • $20,000 |
| 2. To establish a language-rich environment | • Procuring supplies and equipment for organizing English activities such as a digital display board for English learning, materials for English Café and prizes for different English activities. | • Over 70% of students think more English learning activities are organized and they have more exposure to English this year.• Over 70% of the participants find the activities engaging and enjoyable. | • Teachers' observation• Students' feedback | • Sep - June | • English teachers | • $13,000 |
| | | | | | • Total: | • $83,000 |